From Fr. Bill

For some people baptism may seem a one-time ceremony involving cold water, oil and a candle or in Jesus' case a plunge into the Jordan River. Although these elements are accurate, for Catholics baptism isn't just something done to us, but someone... something we become: the baptized. We are baptized into Christ's body (the church) and have been chosen to continue the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ.

As Jesus is baptized by John the heavens open up, the Spirit descends in the form of a dove and a voice proclaims God's Fatherhood... "You are my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." Jesus is named and claimed by God, the Father, as HIS Son. In Biblical times if a man named and claimed the child as his own... in the eyes of the community and the law... he is the father. At Jesus' baptism God the Father's paternity is revealed.

Water flowing, a new name and claimed by God as His child... through the Sacrament of Baptism we too are HIS children and as fully coheirs through the power of God in HIS naming and claiming us. This is why we Catholics believe once you are a Catholic, you are always a Catholic. The words announced at Jesus' baptism found in Mark should be tattooed on our heart and soul: "You are my beloved son (daughter). With you I am well pleased."

So, we have God, our Father. We have Jesus, our Savior and brother. We are called to be fully alive in their Holy Spirit with Mary, our Blessed Mother. Did I mention that each have a role in our family? We are Confirmed to continue the mission and ministry of our Savior and brother, Jesus Christ. What are you doing as your part in the Body of Christ? If someone watched us, what might they witness that might convince them that we are God's children? What service or ministry done in the Lord's name might they see as testimony that we are the Lord's?

Each time we share Eucharist, my "Amen" as I receive and become one with His Flesh and Blood... is my publicly renewed commitment to God's family and our part in the "family business" of being and sharing "the good news" of God's loving desire to be not only one of us but to be one with us. This isn't just the Pope's job... it is our VOCATION.

For a Catholic a vocation is what we "get to give" in order to be fully alive. A vocation is one's way of living life which is most loving... given the gifts, abilities and opportunities God has planted for us to develop and use for building up His Kingdom. (Yes, this is our role in the family business. No, Christians never "retire" or get out of the "family business.")

The most obvious Christian vocation is Marriage: becoming one with the Lord in order to be co-creators of life (children) God willing; to establish their own domestic church (a home where Christ is welcomed and present) where their children as well as guests can meet Jesus through this couple's friendship and love; and where the couple through friendship, respect and mutual love help each other in living their vocation and faith. Yet marriage is not just about turning toward our immediate family. How are WE helping build and support the Body of Christ outside our home? How do we model serving the Lord for our children?

Some are called to love their best through Religious Life: sisters, brothers, monks and nuns. They live in community, sharing all they have. They pray together, work with a common spirit and purpose... and commit their whole self to be of service to the church. Salesians, Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, Daughters of Mary Congregation, and those guys over at LMU (Jesuits) are some of the Religious Communities of men and women which quickly come to my mind.

Some are called to the ordained ministries of Holy Orders: deacons, priests and bishops. The Holy Orders are focused on the Sacramental Life of the Church. These people are trained and chosen to be ordained for the service of a particular diocese. They promise obedience to the local bishop and promise to not get married again. (Yes, deacons can be married... but they were married first.) These men are called to be shepherds (willing to lay down their life for their sheep) working in collaboration with the local bishop in service of the people of God.

Some are called to generous single life. They share their time and talents often as teachers, doctors, nurses, counselors, childcare or a committed area of social justice. Their life is a sharing of their love through serving others by means of their God given talents. Their work brings them joy and rewards them with lives which are changed for the better because of their having journeyed with them. They are "good news" for the people they serve. For some this is a lifelong vocation. For others it may be transitional as God may open their hearts to something else.

A second "career" vocation is being widow or widower. This is similar to generous single life if one has no children or the children are grown; however, if they still have minor children (Single parents are in this category.) their ministry is being mom or dad. Their focus is doing what needs to be done to ensure their children have a loving home and the things of this world needed for their health and well-being.

God calls each of us to a vocation where we will be more happy, holy and able to bring our best to "our family" and be fully alive in His Spirit. Being baptized isn't just an event but is a way of life.

St. Jerome Bible Study will begin a study of the Gospel According to Mark via Zoom on January 12, from 7:30pm to 9pm. The study will run for 11 weeks on Tuesday evenings. The commentary and study guide can be purchased from Little Rock Scripture Study.

Mark is the shortest of the four gospels, Mark is the earliest account of Jesus' life. Mark asks everyone to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" and challenges believers in every generation to accept the reality of the cross.

For more information see the parish website at www.stjeromelax.org/biblestudy. To register, contact Steve Picard at spicard526@att.net. All are welcome. No experience necessary.

"Parish Staff Sunday"

Our office staff is available every Sunday in the Garden Area which is located behind the rectory. You are welcome to stop by to ask question regarding baptisms, parish registration, or about having a mass said for your special intention. You can also purchase Candles for $5.00 each.

We hope this makes our ministry of service more accessible to you and your family.

The St. Jerome Angels Ministry

Two years ago our parish formed a ministry named "The St. Jerome Angels." The goal of this ministry is to reach out to our Seniors, as well as to our disabled parishioners: people who helped build our Church community and are now homebound.

We wanted to acknowledge them, while showing our appreciation for all they have done to build our Church.

We hope to increase this ministry in several ways:

- By encouraging parishioners to let our ministry know if there are other potential Angels whose names we do not have.
- By letting us know how to reach them.
- By providing assistance to the Angels for doctor appointments, church services, reception of communion and for other needs they might have.
- By involving our youth in our ministry.
- By praying for God's blessing on those beautiful people.
- By asking yourself if you might join us in this ministry.

Please send all names, locations, telephone numbers, and questions to:

Kathy Fitzpatrick

Email: thekfzpatrick@gmail.com

Remember: These "Angels" have been the backbone of St. Jerome Church. Let's show them how much we admire, love and appreciate them!

January's Special Collections

Building Fund: January 17th

Envelopes are located at the "Outside Chapel," near the donation box.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was a Baptist minister and social activist that had a huge impact on the civil rights movement of the 1950's and 1960's in the United States. His actual birthday is January 15th and this year our Nation will celebrate Martin Luther King Day on Monday, January 18, 2021. Dr. King was assassinated in 1968 and will be remembered for his non-violent protest against segregation and especially his "I have a Dream" speech.

"Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase."

"Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend".

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday

The Rectory will be closed on Monday, January 18th. The morning mass will be at 8:00am.

We thank you, O Lord, for the leadership and vision of Martin Luther King, Jr., in the struggle for justice and peace for all human beings.

National Day of Prayer

January 22nd is the anniversary of the Supreme Court decisions legalizing abortion in the U.S. More than 59 million unborn boys and girls have died as a result of the 1973 Roe v. Wade and Die v. Bolton Supreme Court decisions.

The USCCB has designated that date as a national "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children." Last year's Memorial Candle Service at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels featured the lighting of 220 candles—one for each child surgically aborted on an average day in the Los Angeles Archdiocese. Please remember to pray to end abortions.

Our 2021 BREAKING BREAD BOOK which we use in church is now for sale. It includes all Sunday readings, all weekday responses and our most commonly used Catholic Hymns. The price is $10 dollars!. See Parish staff to get a copy for the upcoming church year.

These opportunities continue!

Drive-in-Adoration: The Blessed Sacrament is exposed from 8am to 3:15pm Monday through Saturday.

Our Friday Evening Prayer Group meets at 7pm. This charismatic group continues to pray for us and invites all to be open to the Spirit of Jesus allowing themselves to be refreshed and renewed.

COME TO THE RIVER – Bob Hurd

(Refrain)

Come, O come, come to the river flowing from the body of Christ.
We'll go down, deep in the water,
but in the Lord we shall arise.

1. Washed in the waters of rebirth,
we have put on Christ Jesus.
2. Priestly people are we,
sealed and sent by the Spirit.
3. Blest are those who thirst for the reign of God's justice.

From the book of the prophet Isaiah (Is 42:1-4, 6-7)

Thus says the LORD: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street. a bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth; the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps29 – James Drollinger

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Give to the LORD, you sons of God,
give to the LORD glory and praise,
Give to the LORD the glory due his name;
adore the LORD in holy attire. R/

The voice of the LORD is over the waters,
the LORD, over vast waters.
The voice of the LORD is mighty;
the voice of the LORD is majestic. R/

The God of glory thunders, and in his temple all say, "Glory!"
The LORD is enthroned above the flood;
the LORD is enthroned as king forever. R/

From the first letter of John

(1 Jn 5:1-9)

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one who testifies, and the Spirit is truth. So there are three that testify, the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and the three are of one accord. If we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is surely greater. Now the testimony of God is this, that he has testified on behalf of his Son.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

John saw Jesus approaching him, and said: Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

From the Gospel according to Mark (Mk 1:7-11)

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT – Christopher Walker

1. The Lord is my light, my help, my salvation.
Why should I fear? With God I fear no one.
God protects me all my life.
With the Lord what should I dread?

The Lord is my light,
the Lord is my help,
the Lord is my salvation.

2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord that I long for:
all of my days with God to be dwelling,
gazing with awe at the beauty of God,
and in wonder look on God's house.
3. I know I will live to see the Lord's goodness, now, in this life I'm sure I will see it.
Trust in the Lord, be strong and be brave;
wait in hope for God, our salvation.

AS THE DEER LONGS – Bob Hurd

(Refrain)

As the deer longs for running streams, so I long, so I long, so I long for you.

1. Athirst my soul for you, the God who is my life!
When shall I see, when shall I see, see the face of God?
2. Echoes meet as deep is calling unto deep, over my head, all your mighty waters, sweeping over me.
3. Continually the foe delights in taunting me; "Where is God, where is your God?" Where, O where are you?
4. Defend me God, send forth your light and your truth, they will lead me to your holy mountain, to your dwelling place.
5. Then I shall go unto the altar of my God. Praising you,
O my joy and gladness I shall praise your name.

FLOW, RIVER, FLOW – Bob Hurd

(Refrain)

Flow river flow, flow over me.
O living water, poured out for free;
O living water, flow over me.

1. You will be mine and I will be your God,
for I will wash you clean.
And a new heart, a heart of flesh and feeling,
I will place within you for your heart of stone.
2. The blind shall see, the mute shall find a voice,
the lame shall leap for joy.
Rivers will flow into dry and barren desert,
flowers bloom in splendor, glory fill the land.
3. Whoever drinks the water I will give will never thirst again.
The drink I give is an ever-flowing river,
welling up within you to give eternal life.

SING A NEW SONG – Dan Schutte

let your song be sung from mountains high.
Sing a new song unto the Lord,
singing alleluia.

Parking-Lot Etiquette Reminders

1. If you plan to park and move closer to the altar, please park your car further away so that others might be able to use your "nearer the altar parking spot" for mass. The parking spots in front of the outside chapel marked with cones are only for vehicles that have a driver and/or passenger inside zooming the mass.
2. Those leaving their cars to sit/stand outside in any of the property/parking lot area should park on the school side parking lot or at the Eastern side of the church lot closest to La Tijera. (This arrangement allows those who do not wish to leave their vehicles to attend mass AND helps the priest and ministers during communion and offertory since they spend time approaching vehicles only to discover there is no one in the car.)
3. It is not appropriate to try go from car to car seeking a seat. If we notice anyone going from vehicle to vehicle seeking admittance, they will be asked to leave as car-hoppers put both beggar and host at risk
4. Know that if you invite someone into your car, even when wearing masks, within less than 15 minutes you will be sharing both air and germs with each other.

Did You Know?

Talk to teens about posting photos. The pictures we share on Instagram and other social media can reveal much more information than just the picture we want our followers to see. If your teens are on social media, talk to them about the dangers of posting photos with potentially identifying information — posing in front of their schools or cars, tagging their location, or providing other clues that would give a predator easy access. Consider having a family screening contract, where parents approve photos before children can post. For more information, request a copy of the VIR-TUS article "Technology Safety" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.
