From Fr. Bill

"Will you still need me? Will you still feed me when I'm sixty-four?" I will find out this week.

Birthdays: although when I was younger I believed birthdays were about parties and gifts. Since forty I have come to realize they are days to remember, express gratitude and honor those I will always be indebted to... as I can only pay-forward this love in appreciation for the loving and patient sacrifices they have offered for me.

In an age when the greatest threat to a child's life may be their parents having them executed in an abortion, I am grateful to my parents saying "yes" to each other and God and helping bring me into this world. I will never fully know all that they have done for me but each year reveals to me more of the compassion and sacrifices they gave for me and my siblings. I know I drove them to prayer. I know that at times I caused them anxiety and tears. I am blessed by their consistent prayer and the love they continue to show for each other.

Although I usually focus on my grandparents, my uncles, aunts, friends and teachers... this year my brothers and sisters are filling my mind and heart.

I am thankful that I was first born (and spoiled by grandparents) and for my three sisters and my brother. Mary is my oldest sister. She is a Cal Tech graduate. She has a Masters Degree in some kind of Chemistry. She is more powerfully a wife and mother of at least five. Mary is the one who I fought with as a child and at times drove nuts but over the years have grown to deeply appreciate and respect the amazing woman she is. By the way, some people suggested that she was going to be a nun and that I was going to be a sports writer or broadcaster. They whiffed on both of those predictions.

Laura is my middle sister. A better than average student Laura fell victim to being compared by teachers to her older siblings who were toward the top of their classes. Where I was considered the musical failure of our family, Laura, with only a bachelors degree, carried the burden of never working up to her potential. (I know that teachers are important but it doesn't mean they are always right... and they misjudged her badly.) Laura has the ability to be with anyone, help them to feel comfortable and leaving them feeling like they had been life-long friends. She too is a wife and mother of at least five. Not that my mother didn't shine in the kitchen, but Laura seems to have gotten the best of both my grandmothers' cooking skills. When she prepares a meal I can sense my grandmothers' presence in the food and its presentation.

My brother Bob is next. Although we shared a bedroom, being eight years apart, we were never in the same school together nor in a sense in the same family. By eighth grade I was gone most summers involved in Boy Scouts and working at Camp Don Bosco in Arrowbear, California. Bob had to deal with our sisters while I was busy with high school and Christian Service. Bob got his Bachelors in Electrical Engineering at UCLA and his Masters in Business at USC. I really got to know my brother, his generosity and dry wit (humor) at my parent's fiftieth wedding anniversary. I was unaware the man he had become. (Please note I moved away from my family during my senior year of high school as I began following my vocation as priest and educator.) Bob is a gentleman and a loving husband. When I see him, I see my dad.

My baby sister, Margaret, was last. My mom had decided to give away all her baby stuff and God laughed. I am grateful that I was able to teacher her guitar on my vacations with my parents. I will never forget singing church songs with her the month before her death. The music seemed to bring back her memories and her awareness that the brain tumor seemed to have taken away. Margaret was an LMU undergrad (I crashed at her apartment during my summer study programs at LMU) and then went to Cal Davis and got a Double Masters in Mathematics and Chemistry. When Margaret's brain cancer went into remission for a couple of years, she ended up teaching chemistry at Port Hueneme High School. As I was associate pastor in neighboring Ventura, during those two years I was blessed to have more time with her as a adult than I did my other siblings. Her death at forty-two left an empty-space that I know her husband and three children have had to bear.

"Though I know I'll never lose affection for people and things that went before. I know I'll often stop and think about them. In my life I love you more." Thank you, Jesus, for loving me and bringing these I love, especially my friends and family here at St. Jerome, into my life.

I don't think I have told them, but I am proud of my siblings. I am grateful that God brought each of them into my life. I encourage you as well to focus on your blessings. Living a thank-filled and grateful life brings with it that sense of peace that Christ and the Eucharist offer us each day. Trust Him. He gives us what we truly need.

St. Jerome Bible Study will launch a 10-week study titled "St. Paul's Letters From Prison" on Tuesday evening, April 13, from 7:30 to 9pm online via Zoom. The study will run for 10 consecutive Tuesday evenings. Next to Jesus, St. Paul was the most influential person on the thought and teachings of the early Christian Church. St. Paul is famous, among other things, for his numerous incarcerations "for the defense of the gospel" (Phil 1:16) and for the letters he wrote from prison to several first-century Christian communities and his friends. Join us on Tuesday evenings as we explore some of Paul's writings and encounter his tremendous love for Jesus and Jesus' followers. For more information and to register for the course, email Steve Picard at sjpicard526@att.net.

Third Sunday of Easter

4/18/2021

ALLELUIA No. 1 – Donald Fishel

(Refrain)

Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia, give praise to his Name.

1. Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
He is the King of creation.
2. Spread the good news o'er all the earth:
Jesus has died and has risen.
3. We have been crucified with Christ.
Now we shall live for ever.

Text: Donald Fishel, b.1950, © 1973, Word of God Music. Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE # A-735601 All rights reserved

From the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19)

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: : Ps4 – Michel Guimont

(ANTIPHON)

Lord, let your face shine on us.

Text: Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9; refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE # A-735601 All rights reserved

From the first letter of John (1 Jn 2:1-5a)

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse:

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us;
make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

From the Gospel according to John (Lk 24:35-48)

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ON THE JOURNEY TO EMMAUS – Marty Haugen

1. On the journey to Emmaus with our hearts cold as stone'
The One who would save us had left us alone.
Then a stranger walks with us and, to our surprise,
He opens our stories and he opens our eyes.
2. And our hearts burned within us as we talked on the way,
How all that was promised was ours on that day.
So we begged him, 'Stay with us and grant us your word.'
We welcomed the stranger and we welcomed the Lord.
3. And that evening at the table as he blessed and broke bread,
We saw it was Jesus aris'n from the dead;
And his words burn within us' let none be ignored'
Who welcomes the stranger shall welcome the Lord.

LORD OF THE DANCE – Sydney Carter

1. I danced in the morning when the world was begun.
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth.
At Bethlehem I had my birth
Dance, then wherever you may be
I am the Lord of the dance, said He
I'll lead you all, wherever you may be
I will lead you all in the dance, said He
2. I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
But they would not dance, and they wouldn't follow me
I danced for the fishermen, for James and for John.
They came with me so the dance went on
3. I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame,
the holy people, they said it was a shame
They whipped and they stripped, and they hung me high,
And they left me there on the cross to die
4. I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black,
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back
They buried my body, and they thought I'd gone.
But I am the dance, and I still go on
5. They cut me down and I leapt up high
I am the life that will never, never die
I'll live in you if you'll live in me
I am the Lord of the dance, said He

TABLE OF PLENTY – Dan Schutte

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need,
Here at the table of plenty.

1. O come and sit at my table
Where saints and sinners are friends.
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely
To share the cup of my love.
2. O come and eat without money;
Come to drink without price.
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit
With faith and fullness of life.
3. My bread will ever sustain you
Through days of sorrow and woe.
My wine will flow like a sea of gladness
To flood the depths of our soul.
4. Your fields will flower in fullness;
Your homes will flourish in peace.
For I, the giver of home and harvest,
Will send my rain on the soil.
