From Fr. Bill

I cry at graduations. I know it is selfish, but I miss our St. Jerome's Class of 2021. Up until last March, I ONLY saw them four or five days per week. I was with many of them three to five hours a week in class, choir and in church... for four years. Then covid... the age of zoom, separation and distance.

I can hear their voices and instruments in my mind and regret that this year their time to shine as musicians and choir was a covid casualty. Yet, as I watch them fly off I know they will do well. Their families love them. God loves them. And if you don't know, I love them.

I know they all got accepted to the high schools to which they applied. I know they have amazing gifts and that God has plans for them beyond what we can imagine. I know that many of them will be in our LIFTeen and confirmation programs in the fall. I know our seventh graders are ready to set up and accept the challenge of their departure. I guess it is my version of an "empty nest." But God not only has plans for them, but for us... so we move forward, following Him... trusting Him.

Trusting God doesn't mean I don't cry, as my every tear is a memory which becomes the stained glass of my soul where the light of God has shown me His presence. "For you I work. For you I pray. For you I study." If shepherds don't love their sheep, they aren't really shepherds. Pray that our young people hear the call God has for them as we need good shepherds: priests, deacons and men and women in religious life.

The church is always under Construction... and after the "pause" of covid we need to renew our efforts in building the Body of Christ... both as individuals and church!

When we pray the creed we profess: "I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church." Don't deceive yourself about these marks of the Church... this is not a description of what is... but the target of what we are called to be. Additionally, as we are Church, these are marks that should direct our choices, words and actions.

One: We are baptized into the Body of Christ. We are invited into the relationship of love that is the Holy Trinity (one God - three persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit). We are challenged to live as "One in the Lord." Praying together testifies to this relationship. Supporting, encouraging and forgiving each other strengthen these bonds of unity. Humility (remembering we are but dust and that all God has made me is gift to be shared) and obedience (listening for God's will especially through Christ's Vicar on earth, the successor of Peter, the Pope; Church teachings and the Holy Scriptures) are essential aspects of this mark of the Church. Selfishness, sin and pride attack this unity we are graced to become.

Holy: We belong to Christ. We are chosen and called to live as His people. We are gifted with the means of receiving and being instruments of His grace and His love. We are temples of His Holy Spirit able to carry within our person, His presence. We are called to see as Christ sees and act as Jesus would want. Loving God, and loving our neighbor as we love ourselves testify to holiness. Holiness is a way of living in the "now" aware of God with us.

Catholic: All are welcomed. It doesn't matter where you are from, what you have done, the language you speak, your occupation, your orientation, gender or age... what matters is that Jesus loves you... wants to heal you... wants to be with you now and for all eternity. As His arms stretch out to the world on the cross... we are called to reach out and recognize that they are my family... my brother... my sister. Tension we may feel is the Holy Spirit challenging us to more and better because love is not static but transforming. We surrender and enter into a love so great that He was willing to die for us.

Apostolic: We are sent. We have a mission... to continue the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. God made each of us for a reason... on purpose... for His purpose. We are a Church under construction... witnessing, inviting, defending... giving hope to the hopeless and sent to bring light to those darkness. We are Confirmed as His disciples and anointed to share our gifts to transform the world and help make the Kingdom of God more visible and able to be shared in the love we live.

Don't get too comfortable. Jesus has things that only you can do. Be one, holy, catholic and apostolic.

On the last Sunday of June we will be celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. This devotion has been a blessing to me and given me support, encouragement and hope during this last year when so many things seemed to be taken away for our protection. I know that I need Jesus and Mary for dealing with adversity and they have lead me through with joy, hope and love.

You are invited to join the Nine Day Our Lady of Perpetual Help Novena beginning on Saturday evening, June 19th at 6pm. You are welcome to Zoom it, do it on your own or join us in church for this half-hour of prayer. The Novena will conclude on Sunday, June 27th with a Rosary Procession led with the image of Our Blessed Mother prior to the noon mass in church.

I will have more details for you next week. Let us continue to uplift one-another in prayer!

St. Jerome's School Collection

Today the second collection will help support our school. Each month please remember to use the yellow "School Support" envelopes to help our catholic families and their children have access to a great education which should be their right, not just for the privileged few.

Thank you for your consideration and generosity.

Father's Day Novena Cards

Father's Day Cards and Novena envelopes are available at the "Outside Chapel" during the weekdays and with Roxanne on Sundays at her outdoor table. Be sure to return the Novena envelopes to the rectory or place them in the collection basket by Thursday, June 17th, so that your father's name will be placed on the altar throughout our Father's Day Novena.

St. Jerome Graduating Class of 2021

Congratulations to:

J'Dan Applewhite, Danielle Arnold, Valaya Arnold
Morgan Barahona, Aaron Brathold, Amari Hackett
Ikenna Ifediba, Elijah Innocent, Nicholas Jones
Anthony Moller, Jackson Myrow, Odera Nwosu
Naomy Silva, Ella Thomas, Brejhan Williams
Destiny Wilson, Lindsay Zapata

We ask God's abundant blessings as they journey on to High School, and pray that they may truly become "Christian Leaders for Our World Today."

St. Jerome Bible Study has launched a 10-week study titled "St. Paul's Letters From Prison" beginning Tuesday evening, April 13, from 7:30 to 9pm online via Zoom. The study will run for 10 consecutive Tuesday evenings. Next to Jesus, St. Paul was the most influential person on the thought and teachings of the early Christian Church. St. Paul is famous, among other things, for his numerous incarcerations "for the defense of the gospel" (Phil 1:16) and for the letters he wrote from prison to several first-century Christian communities and his friends. Join us on Tuesday evenings as we explore some of Paul's writings and encounter his tremendous love for Jesus and Jesus' followers. For more information and to register for the course, email Steve Picard at sjpicard526@att.net.

All are welcome. No experience necessary

June's Special Collections

School Support: June 6th
Together In Mission: June 13th
Building Fund: June 20th
Peter's Pence Collection: June 27th

Envelopes are located at the "Outside Chapel," near the donation box.

TOGETHER IN MISSION 2021

This year's Together in Mission appeal is happening now. Last year under challenging circumstances St. Jerome's gave $32,255.50. Thank you for your generous support!

Our 2021 Together in Mission Goal is $70,008.00

Our Archdiocese mailed appeal letters to those who made gifts in the past. Please mail in your gift directly to the Together in Mission Office. If you wish to make a donation in helping the less fortunate Catholic parishes and schools, you donate online at: www.ourmissionla.org

Holy Matrimony Celebration

Congratulations to

Jeremy & Lara Brosmer

who were married yesterday at St. Jerome Catholic Church.

May God bless them!

Please keep all married couples in your prayers.

We now have a regularly scheduled mass at noon & 5pm on Sundays INSIDE the church. These masses will have the basic rules of masks, appropriate social distancing, and sanitizing before and after mass. Attendance is limited to the first 600 people coming to the mass. The doors will be closed when we reach capacity.

These opportunities continue!

Drive-in-Adoration: The Blessed Sacrament is exposed from 8am to 3:15pm Monday through Saturday

Our Friday Evening Prayer Group meets at 7pm. This charismatic group continues to pray for us and invites all to be open to the Spirit of Jesus allowing themselves to be refreshed and renewed.

I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE – Sr. Suzanne Toolan, SM

1. I am the Bread of life.

You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

(REFRAIN)

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.

TABLE OF PLENTY – Dan Schutte

(REFRAIN)

Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need,
here at the table of plenty.

From the book of Exodus

(Ex 24:3-8)

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 116

(ANTIPHON)

I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

From the letter to the Hebrews

(Heb 9:11-15)

Brothers and sisters: When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse:

I am the living bread that came down from heaven,
says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

From the Gospel according to Mark

(Mk 14:12-16, 22-26)

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

A PLACE AT YOUR TABLE – Ben Walther

(Refrain)

Here in your presence the greatest are least,
the burdened find rest and the hungry can feast.
By love we're invited, here mercy prevails.
God, in your goodness, we share a place at your table, a place at your table.

HERE AT THIS TABLE – Janét Sullivan Whitaker/Max Whitaker

(Refrain)

Come and be filled here at this table.
Food for all who hunger
and drink for all who thirst.
Drink of his love, wine of salvation.
You shall live forever in Jesus Christ the Lord.

GRATEFUL – Tom Tomaszek

(Refrain)

Grateful for the life you give us, thankful for your Holy Son, joyful in your Spirit flowing over all,
O God of Love.

Grateful for the Bread of Heaven,
thankful for your Holy Word, joyful in your mercy flowing,
we will praise you.

IN THIS PLACE – Victoria Thomson/Trevor Thomson

1. We are all hungry people, We need shelter and strength.
We are one in our hurting. We are one in our pain.
In our suffering and sadness, we are saved by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

(Refrain)

We are gathered at table as one in the Lord.
We are gathered as people who are living the Word.
Our hearts and our spirits are nurtured by grace.
It is Jesus who fills us. He is here in this place.

2. All our lives are a Mystery; we see not where they lead. We are asked now to trust you and we know we must believe.
As our feet become Christ's feet, we go forth with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

3. Though the world may tell us to look at ourselves, We reach out to another where suffering dwells.

As our hands become Christ's hands, we are healed by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

4. In the bread that is broken is the Christ that restores. As we take, now receive him, we find love evermore.

As the bread becomes Body, we are filled with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

WHY IS IT?

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
