First Sunday of Lent

Liturgy of the Word

From the book of Genesis

(Gn 2:7-9; 3:1-7)

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being.

Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" The woman answered the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, 'You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Ps 130

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

From the letter to the Romans

(Rom 5:12, 17-19)

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned.

For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ. In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

From the Gospel of Matthew

(Mt 4:1-11)

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." He said in reply, "It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone." Jesus answered him, "Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Lent can be viewed as an opportunity to focus on mathematical operations: addition, subtraction, multiplication, division.

Lent is a time to add something good. What am I adding for Lent? Perhaps reading scripture each day? How about a daily examine of conscience? On Friday doing the Stations of the Cross? Perhaps walking outside and enjoying God's creation daily or weekly? Join the Our Mother of Perpetual Help Novena Mass this Wednesday at 5:30pm? Friday Evening Prayer Group? Joining to pray the rosary following a weekday morning mass? Beginning March 4th, I am adding coffee and donuts in the hall on the Sundays of Lent following the 8am and 10am masses for community building. Of course, you are encouraged to come.

Lent is a time to subtract something I like. What am I giving up for Lent? You might want to give up Social Media as studies suggest that "virtual living" rather than time spent with friends have contributed to record high rates of depression and self-harm. How about giving up meat for Lent? I am, other than mass and St. Patrick's day, giving up alcohol.

Lent is a time to multiply and divide. It is a time to place something in the Lord's hands to be blessed and shared. How about Operation Rice Bowl? One can, yes we can? Earthquake relief? Why not give up Starbucks and donate those monies to charity?

When we do these operations with and in our Lord, I promise you that He will journey with you through these forty days as we prepare for Holy Week and Easter.

* Beginning March 3rd at 7pm we will have the Stations of the Cross on Fridays, with confession available from 6:30pm to 7:30pm.

* On Sunday mornings of Lent, beginning March 4th we will have coffee and donuts available following the 8am and 10am masses.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Long have I waited for your coming

2: The wilderness will lead you To your heart where I will speak. Integrity and justice, With tenderness, you shall know.

3: You shall sleep secure with peace; faithfulness will be your joy.

Communion: LEAD US TO THE CROSS by Chris Muglia

1: For forty days and forty nights we fast and pray, we sacrifice. We pray, O God, that you will make us holy. From the snare of sin and the grip of vice we turn away to renew our lives. We come back to you, we seek your love and mercy.

You alone, you are all we need.
You alone, are everything.

Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross.
Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross.

2: In solitude we walk with you, in your love and in your truth. We must be the hands and feet of you, Lord. Help us turn to the lost and poor, to the naked and the forgotten, Lord, that we might bring your compassion and your mercy.

3: By the faith we profess, and the sins we confess, mold us. We are brought to our knees at the altar of peace; change us.

4: May the Word we receive be the faith we believe; teach us. With these mysteries draw us into the feast; feed us

Bridge: By your love, by your grace, we are one.

Reflection: REVELATION SONG by Jennie Lee Riddle

1: Worthy is the Lamb who was slain; Holy, holy is He; Sing a new song to Him who sits on heaven's mercy seat.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty.
Who was and is and is to come;
With all creation I sing
Praise to the King of kings;

You are my everything and I will adore you.

2: Clothes in rainbows of living color, flashes of lighting, rolls of thunder; Blessing and honor, strength and glory and power be to You the only wise king.

3: Filled with wonder, awestruck wonder, at the mention of your name; Jesus, your name is power, breath and living water, such a marvelous mystery.

Sending: IN THESE DAYS OF LENTEN JOURNEY by Ricky Manalo
(Refrain)

In these days of Lenten journey we have seen and we have heard the call to sow justice in the lives of those we serve.

1: We reach out to those who are homeless, to those who live without warmth. In the coolness of evening we'll shelter their dreams; we will clothe them in mercy and peace.

2: We open our eyes to the hungry, and see the faces of Christ. As we nourish all people who hunger for food, may their faith in our God be renewed.

2: I firmly intend with the help of your grace
To do penance and to amend my life:
To avoid whatever leads me to sin.

3: Our Savior, Jesus Christ, has suffered for us. He gave His life upon the cross. In His Name, Dear God, have mercy

Communion: IN THIS PLACE by Trevor & Victoria Thomson

1: We are all hungry people, We need shelter and strength. We are one in our hurting. We are one in our pain. In our suffering and sadness, we are saved by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Our hearts and our spirits are nurtured by grace.
It is Jesus who fills us. He is here in this place.

3: Though the world may tell us to look at ourselves, We reach out to another where suffering dwells. As our hands become Christ's hands, we are healed by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

4: In the bread that is broken is the Christ that restores. As we take, now receive him, we find love evermore. As the bread becomes Body, we are filled with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.
