From the book of Jeremiah (Jer 31:7-9)
Thus says the LORD: Shout with joy for Jacob, exult at the head of the nations; proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has delivered his people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them back from the land of the north; I will gather them from the ends of the world, with the blind and the lame in their midst, the mothers and those with child; they shall return as an immense throng. They departed in tears, but I will console them and guide them; I will lead them to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble. For I am a father to Israel, Ephraim is my first-born.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 126

The Lord has done great things for us;
We are filled with joy.

From the letter to the Hebrews (Heb 5:1-6)
Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

From the Gospel according to Mark (Mk 10:46-52)
As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

"God Sees You." This reminder was painted on the wall of the playground at St. John Bosco's schools and youth centers. Like a Google or Apple phone which is listening to what is being said and tracking where the phone has been, God is attentive to ALL His creation.

If God "forgets" you, you would not be in existence. You would be no-thing. Even that shell of our body would be non-existent. 'For in him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.' (Acts 17:28) We believe that God is not just watching but is near as our breath and sustains our existence... of both the bad and the good. We may not "get it" but God is God and we are mere stardust that he has lovingly formed. "You formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb. I praise you, because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; and my soul knows this very well." (Psalm 139:13-14) Only the arrogant might believe that they get to decide if God exists and that they can understand his plans and purposes. Like a teenager who thinks he knows everything, compared with God we don't even have the understanding of a five year old. Be humble. We all have much to learn.

God sees us. Am I aware of Him?

I lose singers at adolescence. It isn't that they don't sound good, but children generally don't mind if their light shines. In fact they love the attention. Teens, on the other hand, tend to be more self-conscious and fearful that the spotlight will magnify their blemishes, insecurities and anything short of manufactured perfection. "I'll be embarrassed." Teens are AWARE when they sing in church they are not only heard but being watched and judged. This awareness effects their behavior. We generally call this "peer pressure."

When I am AWARE of someone's presence it can effect my words and behavior. As a priest I know that I change how people speak and act when they realize I am with them. "Sorry I said that, Father. I didn't know you were here." Yet the truth is that what they said was wrong to say EVEN IF I were not there. My presence doesn't make their words or actions RIGHT or WRONG. My being there just reminds them of the truth they have learned to ignore: if you have to hide it from those who love you, you already know it is wrong. If you have to sneak or hide, you already know you shouldn't be doing it. Be aware, God sees you even if Fr. Bill doesn't.

Does God need my genuflection? Does God need my prayers and my kneeling? Does God need a place for worship? The answer to these questions is NO. The one in need of ALL these things is ME. I need people, things and actions to keep me aware of God's presence. Prayer is lifting my mind and heart to Him. Like my phone getting the most recent update, I need to stay connected and AWARE that God is with me and in me. I need to be AWARE that Jesus is in those I meet. I do accept that at times that is hard to see, but that is still on ME not the other as I claim to know the Lord and belong to Him. When we are CONSCIOUS and AWARE that Jesus is with ME, I do act differently.

My clerical black shirt is not just a reminder to you, it is a reminder to me: "Bill, you represent Jesus and His Church." People are not just judging me, they are also receiving my testimony about Jesus and His Catholic Church. Not only does God see us, the world sees us... and the testimony of our lives matter.

Crosses, medals, scapulars and all sacramentals are resources to help me and those I encounter to meet Jesus and help us live lives "Stayed on Jesus." They help me recall and stay aware as pictures and mementos of people I have known do.

Know that what we do and what we say matters even if we think, "This is private." God knows. You know. And even if you don't realize it... to those you meet, it shows. Don't loose your flavor or try to hide under a basket. WE, in our actions, good and bad, are giving testimony about who we truly believe that Jesus is. I pray we are leading people to Jesus and not acting as a stumbling block in the way.

Don't forget All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation! I hope to see you at our Carnival next weekend!

Open my ears, Lord. Help me to hear.

3. Open my heart, Lord. Help me to love like you.

Communion: Bread of Life by Bobby Fisher

1. Bread of life and cup of hope, we come as gift to you. Change our hearts; fill us with peace. Transform our lives anew. Open our eyes so that we might see your presence in one another. Your life, poured out in love today, unites us all in you.

2. Loving Lord, Creator God, open our eyes to see the good that lives in each of us, that called the world to be. And when we fail to see the good, when friendships falter and crumble, give us the courage to forgive that we may live in peace.

3. Living Word, O Son of God, your love shows us the way that we may live in harmony, and from you never stray. Wipe all oppression from our midst; give us a love for all people. Your song of justice sing in us, to live for peace today.

Com 2: Servant Song by Donna Marie McGargill, OSM

1. What do you want of me, Lord? Where do you want me to serve you? Where can I sing your praises? I am your song. Jesus, Jesus, you are the Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

2. I hear you call my name, Lord, and I am moved within me. Your Spirit stirs my deepest self. Sing your songs in me. Jesus, Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

3. Above, below and around me, before, behind and all through me, your Spirit burns deep within me. Fire my life with your love. Jesus, Jesus, be the warmth of my heart. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

4. You are the light in my darkness. You are my strength when I'm weary. You give me sight when I'm blinded. Come, see for me. Jesus, Jesus, you are my Light. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

5. I am your song and servant, singing your praise like Mary. Surrendered to your Spirit, "Let it be done to me." Jesus, Jesus, "Let it be done to me." Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

St. Jerome Annual Mass of Remembrance

Thursday November 7th at 11am

Our Mass of Remembrance is a special time to remember our family, friends and fellow parishioners who have died in the past year. You, your family and friends are cordially invited to attend this Mass on Thursday, Nov. 7- 11am.

At the Prayer of the Faithful those loved ones who have died from St. Jerome Church during this past year will have their names called out. If they are your friend or a member of your family you may come forward to place a flower (provided) in a vase in front of the altar.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN: Pay attention to your surroundings to prevent child abuse. As a caring adult scope out potential dangers in the areas where a child may be for school, birthday parties, playdates, outings with friends, etc. Another danger to add to your list is the potential for a child to be lured away into a private area by a predator. Abuse can happen anywhere, even in the most public of places, and parents should be aware of any secluded spots that a predator might use. Avoid spaces where a predator could take action – turn on lights, check empty rooms, and patrol sleeping or playing spaces.
