From the prophet Isaiah (Is 35:4-7a)

Thus says the LORD: Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you. Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing. Streams will burst forth in the desert, and rivers in the steppe. The burning sands will become pools, and the thirsty ground, springs of water.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps. 146

Praise the Lord, my soul.

From the letter of James (Jas 2:1-5)

My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. For if a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in, and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Sit here, please, " while you say to the poor one, "Stand there, " or "Sit at my feet, " have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil designs?

Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

From the Gospel according to Mark (Mk 7:31-37)

Again Jesus left the district of Tyre and went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the district of the Decapolis. And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" — that is, "Be opened!" — And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. He ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it. They were exceedingly astonished and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OUR STAINED GLASS WINDOW OVER THE ALTAR
Just left of center the hand of God reaches down to touch creation. Please note that the part of the hand that is visible is a shade of pink which can be seen in the palms of all people's hands.

God is giving a blessing to creation. The circle around the hand reminds us that like a circle, God has no beginning and no end. Water flows from God's fingertips, life-giving waters which help sustain and transform life. These two streams can be interpreted as the Son and Holy Spirit who bring us grace, mercy, forgiveness and eternal life. They are flowing from the Father and returning back to the Father. God's Word does not return empty.

The blue crescent moon touching the circle to the right of the hand is a symbol for Mary, who God chose to en flesh God's Son, Jesus. It is touching the circle as Mary is full of grace from the first moment of her conception. The blue extending from Mary's crescent into the circle is an umbilical cord which connects her with God's only begotten Son. The blue which radiates outward highlights Mary's influence in the world as she is united with her Son and has been given to us as Our Blessed Mother.

The seven four-pointed stars circling the hand represent the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit which give humanity light, direction and guidance.

The heads of wheat to the left and the branches of grapes to the right point to God's gift of the Eucharist. The bread, made of the many grains of wheat are ground and made one. The wine, made of the many grapes crushed are made one. The Body of Christ, from many to one united in one Lord.

The cloud formations floating to the outer edges recall the clouds as a sign of God's presence descending as at Mt. Sinai or at the meeting tent when all those who had been within, came out radiant/glowing with God's presence.

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind but now I see.

1. By your body and blood, by your life and your love, renew us. May your sacrifice be forgiveness in me; heal us.

We come to you. We come to you broken, hungry. We come to you. We come to you. Make us whole again.

2. In the body of Christ we are brought to new life; restore us. May the flesh that we eat and the blood that we drink save us.

Communion: Lord Of The Dance by Sydney Carter

1: I danced in the morning when the world was begun. And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth. At Bethlehem I had my birth

Dance, then wherever you may be. I am the Lord of the dance, said He. I'll lead you all, wherever you may be. I will lead you all in the dance, said He

2: I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee But they would not dance, and they wouldn't follow me I danced for the fishermen, for James and for John. They came with me so the dance went on

3: I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame, the holy people, they said it was a shame. They whipped and they stripped, and they hung me high, And they left me there on the cross to die

4: I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black. It's hard to dance with the devil on your back. They buried my body, and they thought I'd gone. But I am the dance, and I still go on

5: They cut me down and I leapt up high. I am the life that will never, never die. I'll live in you if you'll live in me. I am the Lord of the dance, said He

Communion: Bread for the World by B. Farrell

Bread for the world: a world of hunger.

Wine for all peoples: people who thirst.

May we who eat be bread for others.

May we who drink pour out our love.

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain. Where we divide your people, you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps. Where we are tired and weary, you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow'rful have become the least. Where we survive on others in our human greed, you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

Safeguard The Children
Pay attention to your surroundings to prevent child abuse. As a caring adult, you scope out potential dangers in the areas where a child may be for school, birthday parties, playdates, outings with friends, etc. Another danger to add to your list is the potential for a child to be lured away into a private area by a predator. Abuse can happen anywhere, even in the most public of places, and parents should be aware of any secluded spots that a predator might use. Avoid spaces where a predator could take action – turn on lights, check empty rooms, and patrol sleeping or playing spaces. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® online article "Premises Safety...
