

St. Jerome Sanctuary's Stained Glass Window

Just left of center the hand of God reaches down to touch creation. Please note that the part of the hand that is visible is a shade of pink which can be seen in the palms of all people's hands.

God is giving a blessing to creation. The circle around the hand reminds us that like a circle, God has no beginning and no end. Water flows from God's fingertips, life-giving waters which help sustain and transform life. These two streams can be interpreted as the Son and Holy Spirit who bring us grace, mercy, forgiveness and eternal life. They are flowing from the Father and returning back to the Father. God's Word does not return empty.

The blue crescent moon touching the circle to the right of the hand is a symbol for Mary, who God chose to en flesh God's Son, Jesus. It is touching the circle as Mary is full of grace from the first moment of her conception. The blue extending from Mary's crescent into the circle is an umbilical cord which connects her with God's only begotten Son. The blue which radiates outward highlights Mary's influence in the world as she is united with her Son and has been given to us as Our Blessed Mother.

The seven four-pointed stars circling the hand represent the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit which give humanity light, direction and guidance.

The heads of wheat to the left and the branches of grapes to the right point to God's gift of the Eucharist. The bread, made of the many grains of wheat are ground and made one. The wine, made of the many grapes crushed are made one. The Body of Christ, from many to one united in one Lord.

The cloud formations floating to the outer edges recall the clouds as a sign of God's presence descending as at Mt. Sinai or at the meeting tent when all those who had been within, came out radiant/glowing with God's presence.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Liturgy of the Word

From the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48)

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being."

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

OR

All the ends of the earth have seen the power of God

From the first letter of John (1 Jn 4:7-10)

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

From the letter of Paul to the Romans (Rm 8:31b-39)

If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn? It is Christ [Jesus] who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? As it is written: "For your sake we are being slain all the day; we are looked upon as sheep to be slaughtered."

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

From the Gospel according to John (Jn 15:9-17)

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
