From the first book of Kings (1 Kgs 17:10-16)
In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 146

Praise the Lord, my soul!

From the letter to the Hebrews (Heb 9:24-28)
Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

From the Gospel according to Mark (Mk 12:38-44)
In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

November is Black Catholic History Month
On July 24, 1990 the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the long history and proud heritage of Black Catholics. It also marks a time to share in remembrance the saints and souls of Africa and the African Diaspora. Saint Jerome recognizes and is grateful for the many contributions of Black Catholics to the Roman Catholic Church. Why not learn about Sr. Thea Bowman this month? She is a great Catholic to learn from.

Fr. Bill's Musings

We can pick our friends, but not our family. Sometimes at family gatherings fear, anger and tension can almost be tasted as the topics of sex and politics can become litmus tests for one being respected and accepted.

In our own families and in the church I believe that tension is often a sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit calling both people or parties to growth and spiritual maturity. For the Spirit to be effective requires honesty, trust, respect and humility. Keep in mind that "different" is not necessarily wrong or evil. Saints Peter and Paul challenged each other to more and better. People who pray together such as Saint Philip Neri, Saint Charles Borromeo and Giovanni Palestrina helped each other through loving "fraternal" correction. Tension can motivate us to learn and change.

Our starting point as Christians is not being right... but being loving. I am not talking about warm feelings but rather the commitment to "I truly want what is best for you." My definition of love does not include accepting all of a person's choices and behavior but focuses on compassion and wanting the good for them. If my heart is filled with anger or hate, Christ and the Spirit are not present. If everything they say or do triggers me, although they may be in the wrong, I am in need of a new heart and spirit. (I need the wisdom to own that I GAVE someone else power over me.)

If Christ is in my heart the fruits of the Holy Spirit will dwell in me: Gentleness, Self-control, Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Generosity, and Faithfulness. These are the fruits of a life lived in the Spirit of Jesus. "My will be done" leads to different fruits that putting God and the needs of those He calls us to love before our selfish interests. Disciples strive to live in His Word, look for opportunities to serve and bring Jesus' merciful and loving presence to others.

Do beware of any individual or secular group who believe their group's viewpoint must be submitted to and obeyed. They are practicing a faith even as they reject traditional churches. It has become their religion. They blindly obey shepherds leading them to emptiness and destruction believing they see. The growing suicide rate and substance abuse deaths among young adults testify to the soul smothering nature a world rejecting Jesus provides.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hold tight to Christ. We have only one Lord and teacher. We are HIS students still in need of learning. Salvation does not come from the world and empty promises.

As a Christian, tension calls for me to examine my conscience and behavior. This is an opportunity for growth! Are my words and behaviors revealing the presence of God or perhaps distorting or concealing its light? Humility and the knowledge that we are each continually striving to be more like Christ helps us to better practice living our faith. We each have blind spots... that beam or speck in our own eye... which makes it all too easy to recognize another's challenges and areas for growth while making it difficult for me to accept or admit that I, as well, have areas which need growth and change.

We are to forgive as we wish to be forgiven (which doesn't mean I have to trust them) but I do need to find pity and learn to love them: Wanting the good and the best for them.

So, as Thanksgiving approaches, pray and be open to the growth the spirit's tension may bring to your family's gathering. Recognize it as the opportunity to be patient, kind, loving and forgiving. Don't give someone else power over you.

On Thanksgiving we will have an 8am and 10am Mass. We will not be having adoration.

Stay in God's hand. You are loved.

Honoring Our Veterans Courage

Bravery doesn't mean you aren't scared. It means you go anyway.

In recognition of Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11th. St. Jerome School and Rectory will be closed. Mass and adoration will be as usual.

Please ignore any text or emails you may receive saying that any priest is asking you to send gift cards or money. SCAM!

Today's Mass Music

Gathering: With All Your Strength by Chris Muglia

Praise the Lord with all your heart,
With all your mind and soul;
With all your strength give praise. (2 times)

1. The God of Jacob keeps faith forever, His love endures for all generations. Let us praise his holy name, for he is God. Let us praise his holy name, for he is God.

2. The God of justice raises the lowly. He gives freedom to the oppressed. Let us praise his holy name, for he is God. Let us praise his holy name, for he is God.

Bridge: Let us praise his holy name, for he is God. (4 times)

Gloria: Glory of St. Ann by Ed Bolduc

Glory! Glory to God in the highest. Glory! Glory to God in the highest. And on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you, We bless you, We adore you, We glorify you, We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, Have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, Receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, Have mercy on us.

3. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, With the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God the Father.

Gifts: Because the Lord Is My Shepherd by C. Walker

1. Because the Lord is my shepherd, I have ev'ry thing I need. He lets me rest in the meadow and leads me to the quiet streams. He restores my soul and he leads me in the paths that are right:

Lord, you are my shepherd, you are my friend.
I want to follow you always, just to follow my friend.

2. And when the road leads to darkness, I shall walk there unafraid. Even when death is close I have courage, for your help is there. You are close beside me with comfort, you are guiding my way:

3. In love you make me a banquet for my enemies to see. You make me welcome, pouring down honor from your mighty hand, and this joy fills me with gladness; it is too much to bear:

4. Your goodness always is with me and your mercy I know. Your loving kindness strengthens me always as I go through life. I shall dwell in your presence forever, giving praise to your name:

Communion: Like the Bread by Tom Booth

Like the bread, we are taken. Like the Christ, we are blessed. On this altar we are broken, Giv'n as food that all might live, Giv'n as food that all might live.

1. How quickly we reject ourselves, blinded from our call. We resign to live in fear of love, of self, of all. This is not the will of God, for the chosen must be free. We are taken by the love of Christ to live eternally.

2. Broken like the bread of life, we often flee from pain. We resign to live our lives, not knowing death's true gain. This is not the will of God, for in dying we will live. The cross, a sign of victory and of the healing it will give.

Bridge: Some say it is good to have, but the faithful learn to give. Like the saints of old who lived prepared, we become like Christ—to feed, to share.

Reflection: Christians, Let Us Love One Another

1. Christians, let us love one another, As we share the true living bread. Jesus is our God and our brother; With his flesh and blood we are fed.

Ev'ryone who loves is born of God.
Jesus is our life. God is love.

2. We who break this bread are one body, We who share this cup are all one. Children of our Father in heaven, We are heirs with God's only son.

3. We who eat and drink at this table, Die and rise again with our Lord. Drawing from our Rock living water, Giv'n to all who thirst for accord.

Sending: Hallelujah Is Our Song by Sarah Hart

1. What hope we have, even in the longest night, for the light will overcome. We will not fear, for we know the sun will rise. Hallelujah is our song.

2. What peace we have, even in this wounded world where the battle rages on. We will not fear, for we know who heals our souls. Hallelujah is our song.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! He is risen over all.
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah is our song.

3. What joy we have, for the stone is rolled away and the tomb holds nothing now. No sting of death, no power over sin or grave. Hallelujah is our song.

4. What hope we have, even in the longest night, for the light will overcome. And we shall live; sinners, we will rise to saints. Hallelujah is our song.

Mass Intentions

Arranging to have Mass offered for a departed loved one, for someone sick, celebrating a birthday, an anniversary or some other special intention is a long-standing Catholic tradition.

The church has the custom of each mass being sponsored by someone in honor of someone. This person's donation for that mass is meant to reduce or cover the expenses for that particular service: bread, wine, candles, electricity and other essential elements.

A particular mass may only be sponsored by one person, but they may pray for two or three different people or a special intention.

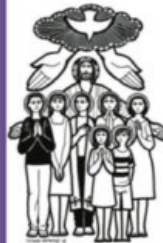

The person sponsoring the mass does receive a card with the date and time of the mass they are sponsoring and the intention they have requested to be remembered and prayed for in a special way that day. The mass intention is usually publicly prayed for during the intercessions which follow the homily.

On Sunday, December 1, 2024 we will begin booking masses for 2025. You can mail the request for a Mass intention along with the stipend to the Rectory office. You can phone a request during business hours with the parish secretary, who's also available at the 8am & 10am Sunday masses outside in the parking lot. Email your request to Roxanne Shaw, the parish secretary at:

rshaw@stjeromewestchester.org

It is customary to offer a Mass stipend or donation for each mass arranged. The suggested stipend for a weekday Mass is $15 and $25 for a Sunday Mass. Thank you for your support.

All Souls Novena Masses

During the entire month of November, a Mass will be offered each day in memory of our beloved dead. All Souls envelopes are in the church for you to list your departed loved ones to being included in this Catholic tradition.
